THE GAME AND THE CANDLE

ELEANOR M. INGRAM

(Copyright, 1909, the Bobbs-Merrill Company.)

could carry the plan through, with Desmond; but we must realize that the one rest sooner or later. And if that happens, in reality lose his identity absolutely somewhere. The one who goes must endure in silence whatever happens; the one

"The one who stays." John finished.

gently, "must not interfere or try to Robert shuddered slightly and sat still

"Bertie, Bertie!" John exclaimed, and, that one is the one who stays. You see,

"I said either of us could do the work."

"I mean to leave the decision to Theo-

"I will not." he refused, flatly. "Take "Hush, hush; this is the fight. We are paying the penalty of being fit for no sword nor gun must be sent to dig in the "Without doubt, or starve decently. But

The younger dropped his head against

"I think your part will be harder than

"It is less difficult to suffer than to mine." John rejoined, after a long silence.

but I do not see a better. And for the-our fellow-men as a fortune made in

"I hope you are, right," said Robert,

side crept the vibrating throb of an automobile, accompanied by laughter and the L'amor que post in te! Non ti scordar—non ti scordar di me—"

Through the night air pierced the crescendo wail of a horn, startling the insect choirs into silence and waking a sleepy bird in the wistaria vines. Both mer scending the wide steps to greet the ar-

"The most delicious time," pealed the

The car started noisily and whirled

"I am so tired," sighed the girl on the steps, gathering up her shimmering skirts

"Why not, indeed? Sit down there in nice. Only I missed you and Robert. A smudge-I have one consolation.'

"We could take care of ourselves."

we have to take care of others."

lots, or will you let me go?"

arches of the veranda.

teered.

tioned.

"Honestly?

muddy trenches."

"And Theo?"

the other's knee.

"John-

'John, let me go.

"That is. John?"

lies far aside."

wearily.

riva!

Sconto col sangue mie

after all, you know.

"I think not, Bertie.

and Billy. Oh, John, you!"

"Don't forget the hunt."

"Bring Robert, old man."

"You will bring me tea?"

china and glass that evening.

"And a salad with cayenne?"

are you so serious tonight?"

"Then sit down and begin."

rested confidence.

"Is the chief joy of life's dinner."

her blonde hair held the glint of gems.

would say you were adorable if you did

"I had something to tell you, I think."

But Allard remained silent, regarding her. It was not easy to begin. More over, the glamour of the future had fallen was held by a prescient cortainty that to-

"Robert is not up?" Theodora queried presently, too fine to insist on the sug-

"Why, yes, of course." And recovering night ended for ever this gracious life.

"No. Are you sorry, Theo?"

She waved a commanding spoon.

the merry chorus.

'Adios. Theo.

"Wait only."

aloud.

out cavenne.

down the driveway.

"But you will try?"

"Play fair, Bertie."

CHAPTER I. The Decision.

"It will last about six months," stated is almost certain. The government ma-John Allard. "Afterward-" His brother looked up at him helplessly.

"Afterward?" he echoed, drearily. "Afterward there must be more. It is not possible, simply is not, for poverty to indefinite journey abroad, ostensibly, and approach Theodora and Aunt Rose. Look around you. Robert." Under the clear California moonlight the jade-green lawns and terraces dropped one below the other to the distant Through them writhed the long serpentine drive and paths; dotted over stood dark masses of flowering bushes or trees, with here and there the snowy gleam of a statue; over all floated the rhythmic tinkle of the central foun-Untroubled calm was the spirit of rising abruptly, walked to the rail.

the place, hereditary comfort. "I have looked so often, John. Yet I

"We must find not a little money, but a fortune, and we must find it in six our roles, Bertie." he declared, with John answered, his low voice grave finality. "The decision is not ours. way to earn it, we know. Inside the law there are ways to acquire it. Wall street, an inexplicable conjuring trick, or a fresh breakfast food. But we have no such talents, you and I; we are just the ordinary gentlemen of leisure-dilettanti. We are useless within the limits set for Outside the limits, outside the

The suggestion was left unfinished, the two men falling silent before it. They were young; so young that the morning mists of romance still blurred the sharp landscape of reality, and for the moment daring appealed more than endurance. 'We could not do anything low," Robert demurred, hesitatingly. "Not about the mortgages or business tangles, John." "No, no." John agreed, flushing. "Of | course, not that. I suppose there is an honor even in crime, a class distinction. Sir Henry Morgan probably despised a common thief, and Paul Clifford would not pick his neighbor's pocket at dinner. No: we will pay our inherited debts, if we have to steal for it. What a come-Robert regarded him seriously.

You are just playing?" he doubted. am not playing at al at things. For the time left us is not long. If we do nothing this place will go, and with it all that Theodora and Aunt Rose call life. We must then take these women, Aunt Rose, an invalid; Theo, a spoiled and petted patrician, to some cheap cit; lodging, and there strive to support them. How, I haven't any idea. Some one might employ us as clerks, possibly. I have traveled all over Europe, and speak French and Italian: that is all my stock in trade, except an education.' Mine is less.

We have wasted our time thoroughly, if innocently. Now we pay. Do you wonder that I look at the outlaw's path that offers itself?" His brother moved, startled.

"Offers itself, John?" "Yes; I did not think of this without the prempting of circumstance. Are you dismayed, or shocked?" "I cannot see very clearly," Robert answered, simply. "Or, rather, I keep seeme tonight except the idea of pain com- policy. It is not so actual a wrong to ing to Theo and her mother. I do not say it should be so; merely that it is. We are more ornamental than useful, we Allards, as you point out, but we have the regulations, not God's law." art of leving. I think most people have with equal reverence. "But you are taktain intensity born with one-a gift, a ing an unblazed trail, and the safe road a less capacity for it: I believe it is a certalent. And we have it. Tell me more." cause the work is only for one of us," other stay here and live as always. One faint sound of gay voices. Some one in

I shall not tell you very much, be-"One of us must go, the must still be master of Sun-Kist, still the party was singing—a man, whose clasps, a diamond studded bracelet and head of this household of ours and an irreproachable citizen. He had better not the veil of distance. know too accurately what the one who the veil of distance: goes is doing." "John!

John Allard slipped impulsively from the veranda rail and came to sit on the arm of Robert's chair, drawing him into a caressing embrace. "I know; we've always played together, dear old fellow. School and college, and the short time since-the two years' difference between us got lost pretty early. But we must learn to go alone at last. And if we undertake this insanity-for it is little better-we must stand without flinching all it brings. Is it worth while? I do not know, but I know many a man has gone into the underworld to protect rose a woman. How many cashiers have misused funds intrusted to them, how many business men have stooped to illegal methods, in order to give their wives-not necessities, but luxuries? We see it every day, this cowardice for some one loved. Only they do it by degrees, and we do it going in. Robert laid his hand over the one on his

"It does not sound very pretty," he ac-knowledged, wistfully. "It is the old legend of selling your ego to Mephisto-pheles. Only, I wouldn't so much mind going to hades afterward; it is the clasp-Mephisto's smudgy fingers that burts "I am not asking you to do it, Bertle. We will just forget this half hour, if you like. You know it was a suggestion, not a conviction, I voiced. You are right, of But I was ready for rebellion against all laws today; and then Desmond came to me-"Desmond! He is out of prison?" A week ago. He came to me for money and throwing back the hood of her cloak to go east. 'Do you mind how you and "Mamma has gone to bed, John? Oh, Master Robert used to sneak away from and I do want tea! Why should I not your nurse to play with Tommy, the hard tea at midnight, if I like? I love coachman's boy? he said to me. 'And to be revolutionary."

now Tommy Desmond is nursed by the police far and near. I am a master at your chosen divan, my lady. my trade. I am.' He has not changed much since we recognized him at his trial five years ago and tried to lielp him." Robert turned to see the face above him in the moonlight.

"He said more than that." "He was very frank," John answered, sessed an almost feminine deftness at rubies.

laconically. that we should give up the last chance because it was unpleasant, or unsafe. Theo-she has just tasted her girlhood, just commenced to live; how can we let her lose it all? I would rather smudge my fingers in saving her than wear the bar sinister of cowardice. There are laws I know you will not break, because, being yourself, you cannot. Go on and tell me what Desmond said." A white moth, hunting some star across the dark, dashed itself against Allard's of sandalwood and rose breathed from When told that he would not be searchcoat and hung quivering there. He paused to disentangle the delicate wings before replying, the careful seriousness of the little action in itself a characteriza-

There has been shown to me a way to make enough money to thrust poverty out of sight for the present and find comfort for the future. A way to save Sun-Kist in the short time left us to command. But it is by a crime, a crime which the world calls as ugly as forgery. You know for what Desmond was punished. Yet it is in a certain sense the crime magnificent, in that one wrongs a government instead of an individual, and dashes the gauntlet into the face of the state itself. It is the crime that to the least degree smudges, because, after all, it offers a fair equivalent for value re-

"What do you mean?" The old mine is no longer worth op-Surprised at the tone she glanced up, but the shadows were heavy where he erating, but there is silver in small quantitles," Allard replied, quietly. "Enough for Desmond's use. Naturally, he never dreamed of making such a proposition to me. He simply told me how the affair could be carried out as he told me a losen other amazing possibilities and reminiscences. I encouraged im to talk, at first merely to dull the clamor of thought at my inner ear. In the end I kept him

You see, he and I have a bond of frivol-

"It's so real and so possible. I have trouble to get. "You might have made tea yourself," he suggested, drawing a branch of the wistaria to shade his face more com-"I hate to do things for myself. I hope that I never will have to.' "I hope not. But I promised to tell you something. I am going on a trip to South America; part business, part restless-champagne upon me, because it is less

"You!" "Why not? I cannot play all the time, you know, not being a girl myself. I may be away only a few months, ormuch longer. But let me be quite frank; surely you are aware Robert loves you, Theo. If I should not be home before you are married, still you will understand how much good I wish you both, and remember that I said this now. Forgive me for speaking of this; it is ventured because I start tomorrow. She sat very still and he heard her hurried breathing in the hush. who undertakes it steps out of this life. "I did not know you meant that," she For, facing the fact, disaster in the end said at last, her accents unsure. "Or you would not have confessed? chinery is very perfect; he who breaks the law can scarcely hope to escape ar-Never mind my blundering interference, little cousin; I have no wish so dear as our world must never guess. Whoever that you two should care for each other. accepts the work must leave here for an

You are not angry?' She rose abruptly to set down the cup. the shadows now a cloak for her. 'Angry? Oh, no; I have never learned to be angry with you. I- It is damp out here; I must go in. Good night,

"Good night, Theo." he responded, with all gentleness. It was so wonderful, this exquisite timidity, this virginal shyness, that only Robert should have seen. He saw her quivering as she passed him in the moonlight, her head averted.

is for the women." he said, his boy-But in the doorway she turned back. ish voice quite steady. "Shall we draw "John, as we entered the avenue tonight there was a man standing near the olive trees Mr. Preston stopped the car When he came back to the seat beside and called to ask what he did there. The his brother, it was with his face turned man answered that he was waiting to see from the silver light pouring through the you about some gardening work, but it was so late that you must have forgotten. "We are spared the pain of choosing He sounded honest, but Mr. Preston bade me warn you, saying that a man, once your father's servant, had just been re-Theodora cares for one of us. Aunt Rose leased from prison, and might use a admitted as much to me, although she knowledge of Sun-Kist to attempt burherself could not say which. Of course, glary. You will be careful?" "I will be careful," he answered, calm-

"Thank you, dear."

I am just taking it for granted that we ly. both love her. We have never talked | She shipped nurriedly across tearing her old, as if in escape, ruthlessly tearing her thin gown upon the door latch. Allard wearily rested his head against the col-John waited, but no more was volunumn behind him and so remained. At the end of an hour he rose and went "You agree with me?" he at last quesdown across the moon-blanched lawns. "Oh, I suppose so!" Robert flung, sav- walking steadily and directly toward the "John, I am not blind; if you pro- group of olive trees. He knew for what pose this, it is because you are satisfied Desmond was waiting, knew what an-Theo will choose me. If you sacrifice swer would be given, and it seemed to everything to save Sun-Kist for the wom- him that he had already severed the conen, it is because you mean the sacrifice nection between the present and the futo be yourself. Tell the truth, if I were ture. It seemed to him that not tomorto go, you would refuse to carry out the low. but tonight, he was taking leave of plan." straight on from behind those dark trees

"Yes, but you mean to do it yourself." just beyond him. The white statues stirred with the wavering shadows as he passed; the rich scent of the tuberoses called as a famil-"Honestly. And our time is short. Rob- iar voice; like a patter of tiny footsteps ert; ask her tonight when she comes the ripple of the fountain followed. (To be continued tomorrow.)

your right as eldest and tell her your story before I tell mine. I will not take that advantage of you. Oh, if she were only less delicate, less fastidiously reared, less unable to endure even vexation! If battle; he who can use neither BAGGAGE OF VENEZUELANS SEARCHED BY INSPECTORS.

> Jewels Worth Thousands of Dollars Held by Customs Officers in New York.

NEW YORK, April 13.-Senor F. M. watch another endure. I can very well Rangel, a rich Venezuelan resident of believe we are taking the wrong way, Paris, and his handsome young wife arrived yesterday on the steamship Allianca. They were central figures on the "The crime chosen is one the state finds Panama line pier at the foot of West 27th swered, simply. Or, rather, I keep see it advisable to condemn for reasons of street, where their wrath was voiced loudly when their six trunks, containing Wall street or in speculating on their ne- gems to the value of more than $10,000 cessities. I am going to break man's besides wearing apparel, were seized by the customs men and taken to the public

> Not only that, but Senora Rangel was obliged to return to the ship and submit Down the smooth slope of the country- to a close search by a woman inspector. As a result a necklace containing six ropes of pearls, with three diamond trunks. The Rangels owed the close examination of their baggage, it is said, to a "That is Billy Clive," Robert identified, dispatch sent from Panama by the cap-"He is an arrant humbug, is tain of a coasting steamer with whom Billy; I do not believe he ever had a seri- the Rangels traveled from Lima and ous moment in his life. Theo is coming; with whom Rangel is said to have had a will you speak to her? It may be you, dispute regarding his ticket. It charged dispute regarding his ticket. It charged that Rangel was a stowaway on the coaster and that he had gems to the amounf of $15,000.

Expresses Indifference.

When Rangel filled out his declaration he said he and his family were "in tran-"If I must." John yielded. "Yet I have sit" and it was his intention to bond an idea it will not matter who speaks their baggage. When asked on the pier first, and perhaps you are not quite up if he intended to bond his trunks until to the task tonight. Yes, I will try." "And try fairly. I," as the white lights he started for France he answered in of the car swung into the avenue, "I am Spanish that he did, and then said he didn't care whether they were examined Their hands met in passing, Robert or not, as nothing in them was to returning to the house door and John de- main in this country. Deputy Surveyor O'Connor, seeing that one of the trunks was not mentioned in the declaration, decided to examine it. sweet, high voice of a girl above the In the folds of a coat he found a rubynoise of the halted automobile. "Good studded cross of antique design. Rangel night, Mrs. Preston. Until tomorrow, Sue turned pale with rage as it was brought forth. His hand stretched forth to take it, but it was withheld.

"I bought it from the Archbishop of 'Come over tomorrow, Allard," rang Quito in Peru for $2,000," exclaimed Rangel. "It is for my collection. It is not for sale. O'Connor said that several passengers had said the Rangels had offered jewels for sale on the ship. Both denied this vigorously.

Inspectors Make Discovery.

In the pockets of another coat the inspector brought up a collection of half a dozen gem-studded ornaments. There was a queer-looking frame of twisted gold wire set with rubies and sapphires, and another in the form of an eagle set She sank laughing into a chair and be- with diamonds. Each was nearly four gan to draw off her long gloves, watching him as he moved to the little tea table inches in diameter. One frame was set in a nook of the veranda Allard pos- entirely with sapphires and another with on, please. I never meant Robert was not busied with the frag. e cided to hold the trunks; also to have Senora Rangel searched on the ship. "It was a nice dance," Theodora mused, When her husband heard of this he "But then, almost everything is tairly danced with rage. "Caramba!" he yelled, pulling off his dance without Robert is like a salad with- coat and vest and tossing them toward an inspector. "Search them too! See if there is yet more for your greediness! Search me, to the skin! Why should I He brought the cup and she extended want to smuggle? I, who am worth $500,a slim, jeweled hand to receive it. Theo- (10) and own many acres of farms in dora had a somewhat oriental taste; odors South America."

> her laces, her white wrist sparkled with ed and that his word would be taken slender bracelets, and the high comb in that he had no dutiable goods on his person, he grew more angry and his wife, "Why do you not laugh at my epi- after the search, joined in denouncing gram?" she demanded. "Thank you; I America and Americans. The Rangels still were raging when not already know it. Please give me a they left the pier, minus their baggage, biscuit and give yourself some tea. Why for the Hotel Lafayette. Rangel said he wished to sail tomorrow for France and get "out of this cursed country."

SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR. away, leaving the naked ugliness; and he Bills of Local Interest Passed by

Marvland Legislature.

Bills signed by Gov. Crothers of Mary- with apoplexy and was removed to his land include the following of local interest: Relating to Montgomery county commissioners. An additional justice of Camp, were summoned from New Hathe peace for Montgomery county. Enlarging the powers of the National Junior was removed to the hospital here, about "Certainly; how could we exist Republic. Relating to drawing of juries in Baltimore, Frederick, Montgomery and

FOREIGN RESORTS.

LONDON, ENGLAND.

FOREIGN RESORTS. LONDON, ENGLAND.

LABEL YOUR LWGGAGE The Hotel Metropole.

And IN THE HEART OF THE METROPOLIS ensure DELIGHTFUL QUIETUDE at the

of the GORDON GROUP Sumptuously appointed Apartments, with Bathrooms attached. Most magnificent Hotel Lounge in London. First.-class

Other Gordon Hotels in London are: Grand Hotel. Hotel Victoria Grosvenor Hotel First Avenue Hotel.

All conveniently

situated and equally comfortable.

BOURNEMOUTH, ENGLAND.

The Grandest Series of Fetes Ever Organized

AVIATION MEETING The first

"Riviera in England," "Carnivals," "Battles of Flowers," Magnificent Vocal and Instrumental Concerts (Melba, Ciara Butt, Kennerley, Rumford, Pachmann and others.) Great Naval and Military Tournament. Bal Masques. Cate Chantants. Athletic Sports. First-class Hotels. Pensions and Apartment Houses. Moderate Tariffs.

A CENTURY'S CELEBRATION and the CELEBRATION of the CENTURY. Programs and Guides free from TOWN & COUNTRY, 389 5th ave., N. Y.

SCHEVENINGEN, HOLLAND. SCHEVENINGEN, HOLLAND.

GOING TO EUROPE THIS SUMMER? After the Gayeties of London, Paris and Brussels Recuperate in

Europe

Electric and Steam Trams. At Scheveningen the best families of Europe and pleasure seekers from all parts of the world foregather to while away the summer days in surroundings as healthful as they are beautiful. Bathing conditions unequaled in Europe and absolutely safe, under the beneficent control of the authorities. Where the gayeties are most refined and the Hotels most modern, graded to suit every purse. Outdoor life enjoyable in the extreme. Motor and Race Meetings. Floral displays and nightly illuminations of the grand parade. Excellent shopping facilities. Quaint Dutch folk in their national attire, while the neighboring cities afford opportunities for excursions of the most engaging character.

MAGNIFICENT MUSIC—Vocal and Instrumental Concerts daily in the superb Kursaal; THE WORLD'S MOST TALENTED ARTISTS.

EN Minutes from The Hague and connected therewith by fine service of Delightful Descriptive Booklet Free From Town and Country Bureau, 389 5th Avenue, New York.

UNDER ENTIRELY NEW MANAGEMENT.

ance included). Dejeuner, $1.25. rant. Inclusive Terms arranged. Tariff-From TOWN & COUNTRY BUREAU,

BEAUTIFUL POSITION On the Avenue des

CHAMPS ELYSEES

Telegrams: "ELYPALACE, PARIS." Manager: RUDOLF RONACHER.

MIRABEAU Tea Parlors and Fashionable Restaurant. 8, RUE DE LA PAIX: Between Opera & Place Vendome Modern installation. Opened March, 1909.

MANAGERS: DORIER & GIROIX (OF HOTEL HERMITAGE, MONTE CARLO) AIX-LES-BAINS, SAVOY, FRANCE. | AIX-LES-BAINS, SAVOY, FRANCE. Y-Les-Bains SAVOY, FRANCE

2 HOURS FROM GENEVA

ment for Rheumatism, Gout, etc. Best Center for Motoring. Splendid Casinos. Theaters, Concerts, Horse Racing. Pigeon Shooting. Golf. Tennis. Fishing in the Wonderful Lake Bourget. Booklet, 389 5th ave., N. Y.

YALE PROFESSOR DEAD.

Educator, Victim of Apoplexy.

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., April 13 .- Prof.

William Graham Sumner of Yale died o'clock yesterday afternoon. The end came quietly and without warning. The he resigned, Dr. Sumner was a pro-distinguished scholar had been in a fessor of political and social science at serious condition since December 27, Yale. when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy in New York city, where he had gone from New Haven to preside at the session of the American Society of Sociology. He was to give the president's address upon his arrival, but was stricken rooms in the Murray Hill Hotel. 'His wife and his sister, Mrs. Walter six weeks ago. He showed considerable improvement at that time, and it was planned recently to remove him to New with the class of 1863 and then went abroad to study at Oxford and Gottin-William Graham Sumner, Eminent from 1866 to 1869. He took orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church and vary Church in this city. He became at the General Hospital here at 5:30 until 1872, when he went back to Yale to teach. From 1872 to about a year ago, when the Yale Alumni, President Taft leading the cheering

TO BE RUN BY GIRLS.

Striking Workers on Shirt Waists Open Factory at Sedalia, Mo. SEDALIA, Mo., April 13.-A shirt employes in local factories, and conducted He simply told me how the affair be carried out as he told me and tother emains possibilities and reminerely to dull the claim of thought fine ear. In the end I kept him so so real, John?"

So real, John?"

So real, John?"

So real, John?"

So real and so possible. I have a marked myshir of that. Either of us and construction and so possible. I have a marked myshir of that. Either of us and constructes and remove him to New Haven. Last week he seemed strong dulety to remove him to New Haven. Last week he seemed strong of the echoed, rather to operate to remove him to New Haven. Last week he seemed strong of the echoed, rather to operate to remove him to New Haven. Last week he seemed strong of the enough to warrant arrangements being made to start a yaoht the nough to warrant arrangements being made to start a yaoht along co-operative lines, will be opened in this city as soon as the necessary equipment of the sanitarium of Dr. Chency in New Haven, when he suffers of using the plant has been desired to remove him to New Haven. Last week he seemed strong dulety for naturalness. "Suppose he dought trains. Codifying Montong this city as soon as the necessary equipment to sea the told and the support of the sanitarium of Dr. Chency in New Haven, when he suffers on the Washington and Rockville and the proposal of the support. You are very supporting, John; the son of Thomas and Sarah Graham summer. He was graduated from Yale first profits of the sanctions.

An effort is being made to start a yaoht Haven. Last week he seemed strong dulet or the Haven. Last week he seemed strong along co-operative lines, will be opened in this city as soon as the necessary equipment of the santarium of Dr. Chency in New Haven, when he working conditions are filed by his creditor Harry of Dr. Chency in New Haven, when he working conditions are filed by his creditor Harry of Dr. Chency in New Haven, when he working conditions are filed by his creditor Harry. The money to read a suffer of the working conditions are filed by his creditor

FOREIGN RESORTS.

DIABETES, GALLSTONES,

GERMANY.

FOREIGN RESORTS.

NEUENAHR. GERMANY. NEUENAHR, GERMANY.

Charmingly located in the valley of the Ahr. 15 minutes' walk from the world-famed Apollinaris Springs.

> All sorts of Sport - TENNIS, TROUT FISHING, GRAND CON-CERTS, THEATER. Americans will KURHOTEL - directly adjoining the

> > GERMANY.

WORLD RENOWNED SPA

For the Cure of all Throat Troubles, Catarrhs of the Respiratory and Digestive Organs, of the Abdominal Organs, Rheumatism, Gout, Asthma, and the Consequences of Influenza.

Also a delightful Resort for Repose. Unique location on the River Lahn, walled in by steep, densely-wooded hills.

A Paradise for Nervous and Overworked People. All sorts of Sports - Boating - Fishing - Tennis. Grand Concerts, etc. Season May 1st to October 1st.

For Illustrated Booklets apply to C. VON DER BRUCK. 61 Park Place. New York. General Agent in the U. S. for Ems Mineral Water. (KRAUCHEN). Ems Pastilles and Salt, or ap-ply TOWN & COUNTRY BUREAU, 389 5th Ave., New York. Cologne - Frankfurt.

EMS, GERMANY. EMS, GERMANY.

EMS Hotel D'Angleterre & Park Villa BAD KISSINGEN, GERMANY. BAD KISSINGEN, GERMANY.

APRIL TO END OF OCTOBER

World-Famous Mineral Waters of First Rank with both Drink and Bathing Cures Richest Carbonic A id Brine Baths. Mineral Mud Baths. C aduation House. Ostend, Cologne, Frankfort, Bnd Kissingen, Munich.

Hamburg, Berlin, Leipsic, Bad Kissingen, Munich. Bremen, Hanover, Bad Kissingen, Munich. PROSPECTUS from Town & Country, 389 5th av., N. Y., or from the KUR-VEREIN. HAMBURG, GERMANY. BERLIN, GERMANY.

The TWO LEADING HOTELS in EUROPE.

All latest American comforts.

120 PRIVATE BATHROOMS.

For BOOKLETS Apply to TOWN AND COUNTRY BUREAU, 389 5th Ave., N. Y. BERLIN, GERMANY. BERLIN, GERMANY. Excelsior Hotel NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

WITH RESTAURANT PFORDTE.

BEAUTIFUL ALSTER LIKE.

Opened 1909. Grand location, near

CENTRAL STATION and FACING the

Departure and Arrival of All DRESDEN, Carlabad and WIESBADEN, GERMANY. WIESBADEN, GERMANY. HOTEL KAISERHOF

First-class throughout. In elevated position in its own park. 40 new private bathrooms with hot and cold running water. Write for Booklet. HOTEL NASSAU

350 ROOMS THE LEADING HOTEL. PALACE HOTEL with THERMAL BATHS
American Comforts; Hot and Cold Running

Water in Every Bedroom; Numerous Private Baths. WILDUNGEN, GERMANY. WILDUNGEN, GERMANY.

FAMOUS SPA FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES TURS

Largest and Finest Hote l. Own Thermal Baths. FRANZENSBAD, GERMANY. FRANZENSBAD, GERMANY. WORLD FAMOUS SPA for the Treatment of HEART TROUBLES & FEMALE COMPLAINTS 1% hours from Carlsbad. Apply for Booklet, 389 5th Avenue, New York. DRESDEN, SAXONY. DRESDEN. SAXONY.

HOTEL World renowned. On River Elbe. Facing Royal Palace, Opera, Cathedral, Picture Gallery.

GARAGE. DIRECTOR, R. RONNEFELD.

NEAR MAIN STATION The Favorite Hotel of American Families The "CONTINENTAL" Opposite Central Station. MUNICH, GERMANY. MUNICH, GERMANY.

The Art City of

THE HOME OF

THE RHINE.

THE RHINE.

AMERICANS VISITING EUROPE Should on no account fail to visit the Rhine. There is only one way to fully enjoy the grand scenery, and that is by STEAMER.

ing of the Spleen and the Liver, Gallstones, Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Prostata, Kidneys and Bladderstones, Hemorrhoids.

PAMPHLETS from 389 5th ave., New York, and 3 Regent st., London. CARLSBAD, AUSTRIA. CARLSBAD, AUSTRIA. TREATMENTS: Diseases of the Stomach and Intestines, Swell-

CARLSBAD ALL THE YEAR.

THE

Obesity, Plethora, Diabetes Mellitus, Gout, Rheumatism, Uric Acid Diathesis, Oxaluria. REMEDIES: 16 Mineral Springs, Drink and ALL THE YEAR.

Baths Cures; 5 Large Bathing Establishments, Thermal, Carbonic Acid, Mud, Sweetwater, River, Steam and Hot-air Baths; Steambox and single Steam Baths, Electric Light and Warm Baths, Electric Four-cell Baths; 2 Establishments for Cold-water Treatment, Swedish Medico-Mechanical Institute, Massages. Beautiful Woods and Promenades, Theater, Concerts, Lawn Tennis, Golf, Horse Races, etc. For illustrated Booklet apply Town & Country Bureau, 389 5th ave., N. Y, or London office of this paper, 3 Regent st. VENICE, ITALY. VENICE, ITALY.

AND MODERN CONFORT ROYAL GARAGEATMESTRE. BOOKLETS

MET FIRST IN SWITZERLAND.

Mrs. Grace Depew and Capt. Howard A. Potter to Wed.

COLORADO SPRINGS, April 13.-The wedding of Mrs. Grace Depew and Capt. was made assistant rector of the Cai. Wedding of Mrs. Grace Depew and Capt. demeanors of Zanesvine have redounded vary Church in this city. He became Ashton Potter, both formerly of New York, will take place in private at to the profit of New Concord. It has at Morristown, N. J., remaining there Mrs Depew's home this evening. After been the custom since the county option the ceremony the couple will leave for the law went into effect for those charged east, later touring Europe.

Capt. Potter is a nephew of the late Bishop Potter of New York. His first wife was Miss Mary Louise McNutt, When Dr. Sumner retired last June, daughter of W. F. McNutt of San Franpassing from an active to an emiritus cisco. Mrs. Depew is a daughter of the lent, from the New Concord point of view. professor, he received an ovation from late Robert Goodyear of Buffalo. Her The magistrate has collected $18,000 in first husband was G. Anson Depew, a nephew of Senator Chauncey M. Depew. Capt. Potter and Mrs. Depew first met about three years ago in Switzerland. Soon afterward Capt. Potter came here. Mrs. Potter went to San Francisco, where she obtained a divorce a year ago today.

THAW OUT OF BANKRUPTCY.

waist factory owned by fifty girls, former Only Objection to Release Now Is Charge of Insanity.

HEAVY FINES IMPOSED

HOTELS DE LUXE

MOTEL ROYAL DANIELI

ON THE GRAND CANAL

LIDO PLAGE

CLOSE TO THE DOGES BALACE

EXCELSIOR PALACE

GRAND HOTELS

ON THE GRAND CANAL

SUMPTUOUS ELEGANCE

Misdemeanors in Zanesville Work Profit to New Concord

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, April 13 .- The miswith the enforcement of this statute in Zanesville to hale its violators before the

The reason for this change in venue is not important, but the result is excelfines from the option law violators, and the village is going to build a new electric light plant with it.

"More Daylight" Law Repealed. CINCINNATI, April 13.-Cincinnati's city council has repealed the ordinance, passed a year ago, whereby "more daylight" was to be procured to workers by setting local clocks two hours fast from May to October of each year.

magistrate in New Concord.

PREMIER ESTABLISHMENT

Orchestra, and a promptitude of service equalled only by the best American Hotels. TARIFF BOOKLET FREE from TOWN & COUNTRY, 389, 5th Avenue, NEW YORK.

BOURNEMOUTH, ENGLAND.

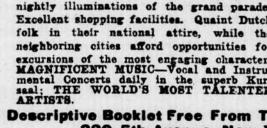

in Great Britain

Centenary July 6 to 16

$40,000 IN PRIZES International British Isles.

Summer Resort

Season

PARIS, FRANCE. PARIS, FRANCE.

Rooms from $2 (Light and Attend-Diner, $1.50 and a la Carte Restau-

389 5th ave., New York.